It's Good To Laugh

A missionary from Sweden was once urged by his friends to give up his idea of returning to India because it was so hot there. “Man,” the fellow Swede urged, as if telling his friend something he didn’t already know, “it’s 120 degrees in the shade in that country!” The Swedish missionary replied, “Veil, ye don’t always have to stay in the shade, do ve?”

Humor is not a sin. It is a God-given escape hatch. Being able to see the lighter side of life is a virtue. And indeed, every vocation and behavior of life has a lighter side, if we are only willing to see it. Wholesome humor can do a great deal to help defuse a tense, heated situation.

In developing a good sense of humor, we must be able to laugh at our own mistakes; accept justified criticism and recover from it; and learn to avoid using statements that are unsuitable, even though they may be funny.

Sometimes I pray to God and ask Him to keep me cheerful and not let me become a cranky old man. I honestly believe that keeping a sense of humor is a great way to avoid becoming a bitter, impatient, and critical person. That is why it can be said that laughter is the sun that drives winter from the human face.

Proverbs 15:13, “A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.”
