The Five-Finger Prayer

Your thumb is nearest to you, so begin your prayers by praying for those closest to you—they are the easiest to remember. To pray for our loved ones is, as C.S. Lewis once said, a “sweet duty.”

The next finger is the pointing finger. Pray for those who teach, instruct, and heal. This includes teachers, doctors, and ministers. They need support and wisdom in pointing others in the right direction. Keep them in your prayers.

The next finger is the tallest finger. It reminds us of our leaders. Pray for the president, leaders in business and industry, and administrators. These people shape our nation and guide public opinion. They need God’s guidance. Also include our servicemen and women here and abroad who always stand tall in the duty of defending and protecting our nation. They need God’s strength and comfort.

The fourth finger is our ring finger. Surprising to many is the fact that this is our weakest finger, as any piano teacher will testify. It should remind us to pray for those who are weak, in trouble, or in pain. They need your prayers day and night. You cannot pray too much for them.

And lastly comes our little finger, the smallest finger of all, which is where we should place ourselves in relation to God and others. As the Bible says, “The least shall be the greatest among you.” Your pinkie should remind you to pray for yourself. By the time you have prayed for the other four groups, your own needs will be put into proper perspective, and you will be able to pray for yourself more effectively.

—Cardinal Bergoglio aka Pope Francis

Family of Joy Lugar (Former Member)...Joy passed away peacefully in her sleep on Friday.

Alan O'Bryant (Inmate at James Crabtree)...His mother passed away Tuesday night. He lost his father in December.

Jack (Brother-In-Law of Tiana Springer)...He had surgery on Tuesday but had complications. His lung collapsed and his temperature has spiked.

Misty Walker (Sister of Bill David)...Her cancer markers are up. She will see the oncologist this week.

Connie Walker...She is making good progress in therapy. Her knee replacement surgery will not take place for several weeks.

Kathy Urbina...She is home now and feeling better.

Leni King (Daughter of Travis Key's coworker)...Her cancer treatments will now be at Children's Hospital in Dallas. She had her second round of chemo last week and did not need a blood transfusion this time. She is starting stem cell therapy.

Travis Wilson (Friend of Dan Biby)...Travis was in a racing accident, and his spleen burst. He nearly bled out but had emergency surgery and is now doing well.

Peggy Jarvis (Friend of Doug & Fern Boyle)...She has cancer and has opted for quality of life rather than treatment. She has been given 3 to 6 months to live.

Nieces & Nephews of Randy Howard...They recently lost a young member of their family in a car accident.

Dan Fredman (Father of Lacy Crowell, Former Member)...He has anaplastic thyroid cancer that doctors can't do anything more for, but he is doing okay. He uses a feeding tube but is able to get up and make his own formula. He would appreciate prayers for comfort and peace, rather than prayers for healing.

The Mission of Powerful Prayer Warriors

We believe that children today face a lot of peer pressure, temptations, fears and obstacles that are unique to their generation. Powerful Prayer Warriors is simply a way to assist their parents in keeping them on the right path—by covering them in prayer. We ask for prayers of protection, thanksgiving, support and strength for our children.

POWERFUL PRAYER WARRIORS,

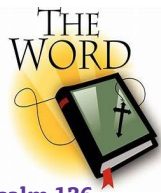

Please pray specifically for these three students:

- Andrew Cox - Grandson of Dwayne & Margaret McLerran
- Emma Wolke - Granddaughter of Roger & Beth Gaddie
- Damian Munsell - Grandson of Frosty & June Munsell
