Blessed Are The Peacemakers!

As a socially-awkward runt of the litter, I didn't particularly enjoy school. Being small and a year younger than my classmates, bullying came often, which meant anxiety, bruises, and low self-esteem.

But my experience was nothing compared to what our Lord and Savior endured. Jesus was persecuted, unjustly tried, beaten, brutally scourged, mocked, spat upon, humiliated, and viciously murdered on a cross.

Yet, He asked His Father to forgive His oppressors (Luke 23:34). He could have called 10,000 angels to His defense. He could have crushed those who hurt Him. He could have said, "no" to the cross.

Instead, He took the high road. Jesus was the quintessential Peacemaker. He knew He had to die for us because He loves us.

The King of kings taught humility, love, and forgiveness. In perhaps His most famous message – the "sermon on the mount" – Jesus blesses the peacemakers.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God." (Matthew 5:9 ESV)

What better than to be called "sons of God?"

But, being a peacemaker is tough. There's that driver who just cut you off. Or that person who took the last package of ground beef you wanted for your weekend cookout. Then, there's your neighbor who espouses the theory of evolution.

In these situations, it's challenging to be humble and kind. It's difficult to love and forgive. Who can be a beacon of peace in a world full of selfishness and ignorance of God?

What do you do?

You make peace.

You smile and wave at the rude driver. You ask to help carry their groceries to their car. And, as to your neighbor, you open the Word and gently show that God created the universe and all things in it.

Honor Christ's example and be a peacemaker.

—in His service, dan
